Three-storey house on the popular Cardigan Terrace, in a vibrant area of Heaton.

Red Ridge Residential welcome this traditional, seven-bed three-bath property to the market, which is ideal for students given its proximity to the Universities and the local amenities of Heaton Road.

With its extra large kitchen and open plan living area, Cardigan Terrace is perfect for groups of five and upwards. The kitchen is fully furnished, including two ovens, two fridge freezers and a microwave, and the separate utility room houses the washing machine and dryer.

Whilst the plasma screen TV catches your eye in the living room, it also comes equipped with dining table and chairs, and leather sofas with enough space for everyone.

The bedrooms are equally sized throughout the property, so there's no need to draw straws, and there are three separate bathrooms, so you'll never be waiting too long for a morning shower!

For the BBQ types, the back yard is an excellent space for those who enjoy eating and drinking outdoors, and even features a sheltered area for when it gets a little wet.

With a full in-house maintenance team for quick and easy repairs, choose Red Ridge for your accommodation next year. For more information, give us a call.
